

WT 10 CALIBRATION GAGE

It is a tool designed for the calibration of crimping machines. The practical fastening the base of the crimping unit, allows to operate in maneuvers for calibration, safely and accurately. With this system you always have the security of the correct position of the instrument and does not run the risk of dangerous falls of the instrument.